Subscribe-HR Achieves Triple Figure Growth

Sydney, Australia 7th September 2010 – Subscribe-HR, the leading provider of Simpler Recruitment and HR Systems has seen triple figure growth over the past 6 months. Since being founded in 2007, Subscribe-HR has been embraced by a large number of SME's that are looking for a simpler and more effective way to manage their Recruitment and HR information and processes.

Complexity has been a key characteristic of the Australian HR and Payroll software landscape over the past 7 years. Most of the systems available to Australian SME's were born as payroll systems and don't offer HR professional what they need to do their job efficiently and effectively.

Software-as-a-Service (SaaS) has been a key driver to reinventing the way in which Businesses can access and utilize the best, most flexible Recruitment and HR tools. Service Orientated Architecture now allows businesses to keep their existing payroll system/investment and easily integrate allowing for information to be passed in a bi-direction manner between Payroll and HR. It also enables them to focus on their core business with minimal impact on internal resource. These Recruitment and HR SaaS method makes running payroll more effective. It allows business to take advantage of a specialist solution without the need for Capex, installation, complex set-up and expensive customisation, simply delivered instantly over the internet and accessed using any web browser.

Mathew French, Creator of Subscribe-HR comments that, "Using Technology is key, in delivering benefits to our customers. We focused on integration when building the Subscribe-HR platform and therefore, can offer Finance and HR the tools needed to get data in and out of their payroll system easily, securely, accurately and effectively". He continues to add that, "We integrate with any payroll system. Using Middleware, CSV and XML we stage, schedule and execute the integration to take the headache out of a HR Professionals day-to-day HR Life".

In the past few months, Subscribe-HR has seen Business like Barloworld, Signature Security, GPNNT, Southern GPN, Trixan, Fortunity and Vinta Group all sign on to utilize Subscribe-HR's e-recruitment and e-hr solution.
